

Updating your own headset

The VR headset can be updated using the Launcher on your computer. Keeping the headset up to date ensures you always have the latest training content and improvements.

You can update both the headset and the Spectator software from the Launcher.

Update instructions

Updating your own system works the same way as updating a Training Workx box. For more information, view the instructions here: Using Your Box > Updating Your Box.

